

Let's Take a Walk through the Celebration of the Eucharist

Theresa Koernke, IHM, PhD

Saturday, November 15, 9:30am-12:30pm

Suggested Offering: $25

Have you ever stopped and asked yourself any questions about your experience of celebrating the Eucharist: How many times have I made the sign of the Cross? Why? What is the Eucharistic Prayer? How did it come to be? Why do I say, "praise be to You, Lord Jesus Christ?" and what does it mean? What did St. Augustine mean when he said, "Say AMEN to who you are"? Take advantage of this opportunity to ask these questions and more.

The Eucharist is, after all, the "source and summit" of Christian life and spirituality. Like a precious jewel, one cannot appreciate it by looking at it from only one angle or in only one light. One needs to examine it this way, now that, now in this light and then in another to comprehend its true beauty.

Theresa Koernke, IHM, PhD has taught about the relationship between Baptism, the celebration of the Eucharist, and ordained ministry in graduate schools of theology, including the Washington Theological Union, since her graduation from the University of Notre Dame in 1983.*
