

On the Road to Jerusalem

A Lenten Day of Reflection

Francis J. Daly, SJ and Kathie Budesky, IHM

Saturday, March 9, 9:30am-4:30pm

Suggested Offering: $50

At a critical point in Luke’s Gospel, the Evangelist tells us that Jesus “set his face toward Jerusalem.” As Jesus and his disciples travelled to the Holy City and to Jesus’ passion, death, and resurrection, he taught them. During this Lenten Day of Reflection, participants will focus on Jesus’ instructions and their importance for those who wish to be his disciples today. In addition to input, there will be time for personal prayer and reflection, sharing, and a lunch from Panera Bakery. The day will end with the celebration of the Liturgy for the Fourth Sunday of Lent.

Francis J. Daly, SJ, is on the staff of Manresa Jesuit Retreat House in Bloomfield Hills, MI. He has extensive experience in spiritual direction and was master of novices for the Detroit and Chicago Provinces of the Society of Jesus and Tertian Director for Jesuits from four continents.

Kathie Budesky, IHM, the director of Visitation North Spirituality Center, has many years of experience in secondary education, both in the religious studies classroom and the principal’s office. She was a staff associate in the Ignatian Program in Spiritual Direction and Retreat Ministry at Guelph, Ontario.
